Dear Akash Sakder

Hello! This is a message from the High Commission of Canada. We are pleased to inform you that you have been granted an Entry Visa to Canada. The type of Visa you have been granted is the W-1 Visa, which is issued under section 347 of the Canadian Immigration and Nationality Act (CINAL) and Canadian Immigration Law (CIL). You and your employer, Indeed Canada, have met all the requirements of the Canadian Immigration Law as stipulated in section 12 and as such, you are entitled to live and work in Canada with your new employer.

I am happy to inform you that your application for an entry visa to Canada with passport number [A16489912] has been approved by my office as the Consulate of the High Commission of Canada. I was given the authority to approve your application, and it has been granted a three-year multiple entry visa to work under Indeed Canada. You will receive the necessary documents when you arrive in Canada on your appointment date, and they will remain sealed until then. These documents will be used to further your case file and enable you to apply for permanent residency, which will help with your future career in Canada.

The charges for your visa and CIS are 146 CAD and 64 CAD respectively. To proceed, you need to make a payment of Total 210 CAD (Two Hundred Ten Canadian Dollar only) immediately for W-Visa. Once the payment is confirmed, your visa issuance and appointment date will be scheduled within 24 hours.

Your appointed immigration officer is in charge of your file and has sent authorized payment details for your visa fee via Money Gram.

Sincerely

VISA

Consent and declaration

Information provided to CIC is collected under the authority of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) to determine admissibility to Canada. Information provided may be shared with other Canadian government institutions such as, but not limited to, the Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA), the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP), the Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS), the Department of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development (DFATD), Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC), the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), provincial and territorial governments and foreign governments in accordance with subsection 8(2) of the Privacy Act. Information may be disclosed to foreign governments, law enforcement bodies and detaining authorities with respect to the administration and enforcement of immigration legislation where such sharing of information may not put the individual and or his/her family at risk. Information may also be systematically validated by other Canadian government institutions for the purposes of validating status and identity to administer their programs.

Where biometrics are provided as part of an application, the fingerprints collected will be stored and shared with the RCMP. The fingerprint record may also be disclosed to law enforcement agencies in Canada in accordance with subsection 13.11(1) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations. The information may be used to establish or verify the identity of a person in order to prevent, investigate or prosecute an offence under any law of Canada or a province. This information may also be used to establish or verify the identity of an individual whose identity cannot reasonably be otherwise established or verified because of physical or mental condition. Canada may also share immigration information related to biometric records with foreign governments with whom Canada has an agreement or arrangement.

Depending on the type of application made, the information you provided will be stored in one or more Personal Information Banks (PIB) pursuant to section 10(1) of Canada's Privacy Act. Individuals also have a right to protection and access to their personal information stored in each corresponding PIB under the Access to Information Act. Further details on the PIBs pertaining to CIC's line of business and services and the Government of Canada's access to information and privacy programs are available at the Infosource website (http://infosource.gc.ca) and through the CIC Call Centre. Infosource is also available at public libraries across Canada.

Declaration of Applicant

I have read and understand the above declaration.

I declare that the information I have given in this application is truthful, complete and correct.

I understand that misrepresentation is an offence under section 127 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act and may result in a finding of inadmissibility to Canada or removal from Canada.

I agree that by typing my name and clicking sign, I am electronically signing my application.

I have read about the possibility of withdrawing from the contract and the Regulations. I agree to the content of the Regulations.

I have read the information about processing of personal data and I agree to its content.

According to art. 9 par. 2 letter a and art. 10 of the General Data Protection Regulation of 27th April 2016 (Official Journal of the European Union UE L 119 of 05/04/2016) I agree to processing the personal data concerning sex, health and information on convictions and violations of law or related security measures for the performance of the contract of visa agency by INTERNATIONAL VISA SERVICE LLC LP.
